All shipments are subject to the terms and conditions of contract set forth on the reverse side and as set forth in the UPS Air Freight Terms and Conditions of Contract at www.ups.com, the terms of which are incorporated by this reference. If this shipment involves an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of departure, the Warsaw Convention, as amended or the Montreal Convention may apply. These Conventions govern and in most cases limit UPS's liability for loss, damage, or delay to cargo. Subject to this, UPS shall in no event be liable for any special, incidental, or consequential damages, and unless a higher value is declared and additional charge paid, UPS's liability shall be limited to the amounts set forth in the UPS Air Freight Services Terms and Conditions of Contract, available at ups.com. For international and Canadian shipments, exporter understands that commercial invoices and other documents may be required, and authorizes UPS to act as Forwarding Agent for export control and customs purposes. If this shipment contains Dangerous Goods, this air waybill must describe the Shipment and the Shipment must be in condition for carriage, in accordance with the current International Air Transport Association's Dangerous Goods Regulations.
